Learning Headquarters' Fourth Grade Common Core PDFs

• Fourth Grade Classroom Systems & Tools •

The materials and tools in this file are designed to help all students have a clear understanding of classroom behavior expectations.

With these schema-building teacher demonstration charts and organizers, students will take responsibility and independently manage their learning based on a set of effective teacher- and student-generated criteria.

In this file, you will also find 'Adaptable Action Pieces,' which are individual PDF pieces for use on interactive whiteboards and projection systems.

Independent Worker Guide

Classroom Procedures

Independent Worker Guide
On Task	4
	3
Off Task	2
	1

This eye-catching scoring guide is used as a tool to target student behavior, emphasizing on-task decisions to create an atmosphere of all students 'in the zone'. Using this tool promotes student buy-in by including the students in generating the criteria to define the four levels of responsible, independent workers in the classroom.

This practical tool assists the instructor in identifying, modeling, and practicing a safe and structured classroom environment. The Procedures Sheet offers an opportunity for the teacher to set clear and standardized behavior expectations collaboratively. Using student-generated anecdotes, educators can build a positive and organized community of learners. This tool helps to model ways to proactively address off-task or disruptive behaviors and provides students with a set of steps, tools, and signals to maintain independently.

Learning Positions

Writing Position

Sit up tall,
feet flat and out of sight.
Hand flat on paper
and pencil up,
ready to write!
